PROFILE SUMMARY

I studied software engineering out of interest from my university experience as a technical engineer and my aptitude in the field. I want to be in an environment of constant growth in the world of programming. And I want to try the experience I have gained from the projects I have worked on so far in bigger projects. I am diligently exploring other technologies myself.

WORK EXPERIENCE

2021 - 2022

Teacher of computer science
I taught python programming language and various technologies to school students from computer science for 1 year.

Here I acquired pedagogical skills for myself, which are very important nowadays

VOLUNTARY ACTIVITIES

I teach online classes to young people who are interested in .NET and just getting into programming. In these classes, I am giving them as much understanding of algorithms as possible.

These actions will be very useful for me to know or understand more about technologies that I don't know about.
